Tenth International Medical Congress for Psychotherapy, Oxford 1938

Hs 1201: 45 / 1-4

- (1) The Programme of the Congress
- (2) Invitation and seating plan for the Dinner given to Professor Jung on July 31st 1938
- (3) A page of handwritten notes by Dr. E. A. Bennet about Jung's arrival in London and the subsequent events
- (4) The telegrams exchanged with Professor Freud:
 - (a) The text of the telegram sent from the Congress to Professor Freud 29 July 1938
 - (b) The telegram Professor Freud sent in reply 30 July 1938, together with a typed copy of the text
 - (c) A copy of a note from Mr. William McGuire to Mrs. Eveline Bennet, 19 November 1976
 - (d) A carbon copy of a letter from Dr. E. A. Bennet to Miss Barbara Hannah on 5 February 1965 in which he describes the background to the exchange of telegrams,
 - (e) together with the letter from Miss Hannah to which he replied.

(Note: regarding (c) and (d):

Mr. McGuire had requested an authentic statement about the telegram sent from the Oxford Congress to Professor Freud to correct inaccurate versions of what had taken place. The statement sent to him in 1976 is not included here because Dr. Bennet's letter to Miss Hannah is preferable. There are, however, a few additional facts, and these could be made available if they would be of interest).
